

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY SOCIAL WORK

Fundraiser to Support The Warming Center, Mt. Clemens

March 27th, 9:00– 2:00 pm Doors open at 8:30am
Social Work Ethics in a Changing Environment

Tanisha Moir LMSW, CAADC Instructor, Oakland University and John Moir LLMSW, CADCM a Hospital Liaison/Substance Use Treatment Specialist with Community Network Services

5 CEUs in Ethics for $50.00

This course will review the ethical standards as defined by the NASW code of ethics, provide examples of ethical dilemmas and explore ethical obligations of social work practitioners to our clients, agencies, colleagues and the field .

Objectives: As a result of this course, you will be prepared to:

1. Define dual relationships
2. Define ethical dilemma
3. Identify ethical limits in the use of technology
4. Identify federal, state and local laws that impact ethical social work practice
5. Identify key features of mandated reporting
6. Outline core aspects of confidentiality and limits of confidentiality
7. Define and identify the ethical standards and principles of the NASW code of ethics

Must pre-register for this event. A parking pass will be emailed to you. Bring a copy of your registration as your ticket and your Social Work Licensing number for CEUs. Everyone is welcome to attend!!! Lunch will be provided.

Register at <https://www.warmingcenter.org/donate> and write Ethics CEUs in notes for this to count as your entrance ticket. For purchase orders please email Kathy at kathy@macombcountywarmingcenter.org

ANTON/FRANKEL CENTER

20 South Main Street
Mount Clemens, MI 48043

Questions? Contact
Heather El-Khoury
elkhoury@oakland.edu