Cinco de Mayo is more and more celebrated in America. But, why? What is it all about? Join us with Kim Parr as she provides a brief overview of the history of Cinco de Mayo. Enjoy a Mexican inspired afternoon tea to include Three Wives Tea, a variety of tea-sandwiches and desserts. Tickets are limited, non-refundable and cost $35 for members of the Macomb County Historical Society & $40 for non-members. Please call for reservations at 586-465-2488.

The Crocker House Museum is located at 15 Union Street,
