

LUNAR LANDING

With Jesse Mason

Physics professor and astronomer Jesse Mason returns with a presentation for the 50th anniversary of the first manned lunar landing. On July 20, 1969, the lunar module of Apollo 11 landed safely on the moon, “a giant leap for mankind”. Join us to learn about the historic event. All ages are welcome, but children must be accompanied by an adult.

Dorothy M. Busch Library
Wednesday, May 22, 2019
6:00 p.m.

Please call to register: 586.353.0580

