Sign-in opens at 6:00pm

I-TEC CENTER

609 Ortonville Rd

Ortonville, MI

(located at the back of the Brandon Middle School Facility)

Communication and collaboration are essential when planning for students with disabilities.

Parents and school personnel can sometimes get caught up in the moment and good communication techniques may not be utilized.

This workshop covers how good communication helps team members be more effective.

- ✓ Talk so others want to hear your message
- ✓ Practice asking effective questions
- ✓ Mediation as a conflict resolution tool

Who should attend? Families with a child with a disability or learning challenge, school staff, other community members

Please note: To be good stewards of our funding resources, we need a minimum number of participants registered by the registration deadline for the presentation to be held. If it is after the deadline and you haven't registered, please call or email to check the status of the event. If you require accommodations or materials in an alternative format, please let us know one week before the workshop.

Coordinated by the Michigan Alliance for Families. All workshops are free and open to the public. Michigan Alliance for Families is an IDEA Grant Funded Initiative of the Michigan Department of Education, Office of Special Education, and Michigan's federal Parent Training and Information Center (PTIC) funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP).
