

Native Plants for Birds

Hosted by Detroit Audubon Society

Thursday, May 28, 2020
6:00 P.M. – 7:00 P.M.

Join Detroit Audubon's Research Coordinator, Ava Landgraf, and Native Plant Enthusiast, Michelle Serryen, to learn about using native plants to support local birds.

Discussed will be why native plants are better for birds and share information on favorite plants to use in the garden.
