9 a.m. Breakfast Talk in the garden:
"Gifts from the Garden"

Before heading out to see the lovely gardens on the walk, please join us for breakfast and an informative talk with Master Gardener Susan Keehn. She will present a program exploring ways to use what you have grown in combination with other components and ingredients to create treasures you'll love.

Home-made scones, hard-boiled eggs, fresh fruit and hot Three Wives Tea will be served in the Crocker House Garden.

Please purchase your tickets for the breakfast when ordering your Garden Walk tickets.
Breakfast tickets must be purchased in advance. Tickets are limited, non-refundable, and cost just $12 for members of the Macomb County Historical Society and $15 for non-members.

Plant Exchange at the Michigan Transit Museum

Simply bring your split plants or flowers to exchange for another. The depot museum will also be open for tours.
