About safeTALK: safeTALK is a half-day alertness training that prepares anyone over the age of 15, regardless of prior experience or training, to become a suicide-alert helper.

Who should attend: Caregivers, social workers, counselors, students, teachers, parents, first responders, and many others can all use safeTALK skills.

What to expect: Participants will leave safeTALK with practical knowledge of how to identify someone having thoughts of suicide and link them to life-saving resources.

To register go to www.oaklandchn.org and select the Training /Online Tests link. Registration is Mandatory. Walk-ins will not be permitted. Social Work CEU's Available.
