

Starr Commonwealth's Trauma & Resilience Virtual Conference 2020

hosted by The National Institute for Trauma and Loss in Children

July 21, 2020 8:30 A.M. –
July 24, 2020 4:30 PM

Macomb Intermediate School District
44001 Garfield
Clinton Township, MI 48038

Starr's Trauma & Resilience Conference is designed for helping professionals who work with children, adolescents, and families including, but not limited to: teachers, school administration and staff, psychologists, social workers, counselors and hospice workers.

Learn from Starr's trauma experts, and take advantage of Your time with them to ask questions and take the course material further.

Network with like-minded professionals.

Return to your organization as a champion for change to ensure the children you work with can flourish!

Tickets cost $199 and are available at
