

Coyote: Our Urban Adapter

Wednesday, September 23, 2020
6:00 P.M. – 7:00 P.M.

Center Line Public Library
7345 Weingartz St.
Center Line, MI 48015

Native Americans told legends about the coyote and yet today this wild canine only seems to see bad press. How can one animal be feared by some and revered by others?

Utilizing data collected in recent big city studies, this one-hour educational presentation with Laurel Zoet of Nature on the Go, will look into the biology, the myths and the facts about one of North America's most highly adaptable animals.

Ideal for minimizing human-coyote conflict will also be shared.